

SITE INTERNET

The World of Industry is above all:

An online magazine that tracks news in real time: new developments, upcoming technologies, exclusive offers, changing markets, business movements, as well as key business events.

A directory to reference your products and connect buyers and industrial prescribers with major equipment suppliers and service providers.

A catalogue space to present all your products in one place.

Newsletters

The World of Industry also publishes:

The World of Industry Newsletter:

The Newsletter Industrial Purchasing is a tool that allows you to regularly receive a summary of industry news. The World of Industry newsletters contain industry news, product news, thematic files, and trade shows.

Thematic newsletters:

Thematic off-series that allow you to get in touch with all integrators and manufacturers who have already expressed an interest in these products.
